What you need to know from July 2023 (From Services Australia website)

From 10 July 2023, Child Care Subsidy increased which means most families using child care now get more subsidy.

The maximum amount of CCS increased from 85% to 90% for families earning up to $80,000.

Families earning over $80,000 and under $530,000 may get a subsidy starting from 90%. Depending on their income, the subsidy will go down by 1% for each $5,000 of income they earn.

If you get CCS, you can see your new rate using your online account through myGov or Express Plus Centrelink app. You don't need to do anything to get the increased rate.

The income limit for CCS also increased from $356,756 to $530,000.

Family income

We'll work out your Child Care Subsidy (CCS) percentage using your family income estimate.

Your CCS percentage applies to either your hourly fee or the relevant hourly rate cap, whichever is lower.

We pay this directly to your child care service to reduce the fees you pay.

Use the Child Care Subsidy calculator on the Starting Blocks website to see what you may be eligible for.

Standard CCS rates from 10 July 2023

Your family income	Child Care Subsidy percentage
$0 to $80,000	90%
More than $80,000 to below $530,000	Between 90% and 0% The percentage goes down by 1% for every $5,000 of income your family earns above $80,000
$530,000 or more	0%

If you have more than one child aged 5 or younger, you may get a higher rate for one or more of your children.

You can still claim CCS even if your family income estimate is $530,000 or more. If you actually earn less than this, we'll pay you the subsidy you're entitled to. We'll do this when we balance your payments at the end of the financial year. (Source: <https://www.servicesaustralia.gov.au/your-income-can-affect-child-care-subsidy?context=41186#fromjuly>)
